Dissimulation

The definition of dissimulation is as follows.

noun

concealment of one's thoughts, feelings, or character; pretense.

"an attempt at dissimulation"

Similar:

misrepresentation

deceit

dishonesty lying shamming

faking

hypocrisy

Sounds very familiar.

Especially in today's world.

Spinning the truth comes to my mind.

We see this all the time.

Some media channels are great at this.

Whatever happened to just presenting the news in an unbiased manner?

That my friend has been gone for decades.

This is a common occurrence today.

Nobody truly knows the exact truth.

It has been stretched or fabricated in some way.

How can a common person decipher the truth when it has been spun?

No wonder such chaos exists today in this world.

When our news turns into dissimulation we are lost.

Common sense becomes uncommon.

Truth becomes fiction.

Fiction becomes the truth.

That is a scary thing.

Haughtiness

The definition of haughtiness is as follows.

noun

the appearance or quality of being arrogantly superior and disdainful.

"her air of haughtiness"

Similar:

arrogance

conceit

self-importance

egotism

sense of superiority

boasting condescension

scorn

mocking sneering

scoffing

snootiness

What is it about the computer that the rise of haughtiness arises?

I have noticed this for over 35 plus years.

When teaching or explaining to someone we get haughty to the other person.

It seems like when we know something and the other person doesn't get it we get haughty.

Mind you we have been in the same shoes as the other person.

I find this fascinating.

I still stumble and fall over this one.

It's definitely embedded in my subconscious.

At least I'm aware of it.

That's a good place to start.

Some weeds are harder to pull than others.

A change in the state of mind is needed.

The result of the trigger must be nullified.

One must develop compassion in each and every moment.

When the trigger gets pulled again one can be in an inner state of mind.

I call this being in the center of the hurricane.

I'm talking to myself here.

This path is a practical path.

We can learn and grow in each moment.

Harmfulness

The definition of Harmfulness is as follows.
the fact of causing damage or injury to somebody/something, especially to a person's health or to the environment
I remember this incident in fifth grade.
Bill and I were selling boy scouts tickets.
We were at the dock.
Bill suddenly said there was a kitten in the water.
I rescued the kitten.
The owner of the house gives me a five-dollar reward.
I have a hunch that Bill threw the kitten in the water.
What is it in humans that we like to cause harm to another sentient being?
Mind you this is a minor incident but the poor kitten could have drowned.
Somehow this incident was told about through my school.
My teacher asked me about it and I told her the story.
A classmate stood up and said I was wrong to accept the money.
A true boy scout never accepts a reward for his actions.
I never hear that one before.
I pray that someday humanity will wake up from our slumber.
There is so much harm going on in this world.
Yet the majority of people are kind and compassionate.
It just takes a few rotten apples to spoil the batch.
Even rotten apples have precious seeds within them.
Maybe it's time to discover our own precious seeds within.

Shamelessness

The definition of Shamelessness is as follows.
lacking any sense of shame: immodest; audacious.
insensible to disgrace.
showing no shame.

When truth becomes fiction and fiction becomes truth it is a sad day for America.

Many of our leaders have no shame.

When many leaders say that the capital riot was a walk in the park despite the video evidence have they any sense of morality?

Many laws are being passed to stop certain groups from voting.

Half the population believes the past election was rigged.

The ex-president has raised over 100 million dollars from this falsehood.

I could go on and on.

It seems like common decency has faded away.

To stay in power despite any morals and ethics is the norm.

Yet the ones in power if the other side did the same thing would be up in arms.

All great civilizations' downfalls occur when common decency has left the arena.

What's left is only power moguls who could care less about you.

We even have the media that will spin the truth.

We are on the verge of falling apart at the seams.

Yet we think our country is not in jeopardy.

The signs are all around us.

We are so locked into I'm right and your wrong.

Remember America needs the left-wing and right-wing to fly.

Dullness

The definition of dullness is as follows.

not sharp; blunt:

causing boredom; tedious; uninteresting:

a dull sermon.

not lively or spirited; listless.

not bright, intense, or clear; dim:

a dull day; a dull sound.

Our minds need to be sharpened.

Our society today is demonstrating that we don't have sharp minds.

Note we can't even get along with each other.

Truth is fiction and fiction is truth.

We need to learn how to sharpen our minds.

We can't see the brilliance within.

Yet we think we have all the answers.

When the mind, body, and soul are not in balance chaos exists internally and externally.

We think everything is ok.

Some people even think the Capital Building riot was a walk in the park.

All the great masters said to cultivate the mind.

Instead of listening, we like the weeds that we have grown.

I have friends who get a kick at flaming others.

To the delight of their friends, they love to see this.

They actually enjoy mocking and putting down others.

If we as a society want to advance we must sharpen our minds.

Yes, it does take time and effort.

It's so easy to flame someone.

The hardest thing to do in the universe is to conquer your own mind.

Afflictive

The definition of afflictive is as follows.

adjective

characterized by or causing pain, distress, or grief; distressing.

Pain and distress are all around us.

Just look at the pandemic today.

So many people have lost their loved ones.

They are grieving every single moment of the day.

Many more will die.

Is there an end in sight?

My heart goes out to all.

As a nation, we can't even stand together.

I have my rights while thousands are going to the hospitals every single day.

We as a nation have lost our moral compass.

Even some of our so-called leaders are spreading such lies.

The right-wing and left wing must be united to fly.

We must all unite and see our differences as blessings in disguise.

We are a melting pot.

We have forgotten that.

We all came from somewhere else.

Why do we hold on to our beliefs that's it my way or you are wrong and evil?

Where did having a different point of view mean you have to hate the other person?

If we were united as a nation the pandemic would be long gone by now.

There wouldn't be so much unnecessary grief upon the land.

Non-faith

The definition of Non-faith is as follows.

does not have admiration for, and does not aspire to virtuous phenomena.

Maybe just maybe this is the source of the problem.

Humanity doesn't believe that this exists inside of them.

These are mere stories.

Otherwise, I would have known by now.

When we think this is all fantasy we tend to brush it off.

For generations, the world has not found the jewel within.

Most people have never looked for it.

Science is proving today what wise men have said in the past.

Science and the world of mystics are slowly melting together.

You are your own chemistry set.

Science has proven that.

Learn to be more open.

You are the universe.

You just don't know it.

Modern-day scientists have proven that today.

Laziness

The definition of Laziness is as follows.

noun

the quality of being unwilling to work or use energy; idleness.

"it was sheer laziness on my part"

Similar:

idleness

shiftlessness

inactivity

inertia

There is a huge difference between being lazy and one who has discovered the jewel within.

A lazy man does nothing yet his mind is extremely active.

One who has discovered the jewel within lives in the center of the hurricane.

Huge difference.

One tries to escape from this world while the other has his feet on the ground and his head in heaven.

At times being lazy is a reflection of our state of mind.

We are lethargic and have no energy for life.

Life has no meaning or purpose.

In this state we are idle.

The engines are running yet we have the car in park.

If we do this too long we are running on gas fumes.

One who has a purpose in life is constantly filling the car with gasoline.

He will never have to worry about running out of gas.

Non-conscientiousness

The definition of Non-conscientiousness is as follows.

Antonyms

cutthroat, dishonest, dishonorable, immoral, unconscionable, unethical, unjust, unprincipled, unscrupulous

Hey, this sounds like some current-day politicians today.

In some sense, many millions of Americans have no problems with these characteristics.

As long as their party is in power anything goes.

Yet if the opposite party has the same qualities all hell will break out.

Whatever happened to human decency?

Forgetfulness

The definition of Forgetfulness is as follows.

noun

lapse of memory.

Similar:

absentmindedness

amnesia

poor memory

a lapse of memory

vagueness

My friends, we have forgotten who we truly are.

You are the universe and you just don't know it.

That is the truth.

You are magnificent.

Yet we all have amnesia.

We come unto this world with full awareness.

Slowly it starts to dwindle away.

At some point, it simply vanishes.

We may have flashed at some point in time.

Yet even then we are too busy to see.

We have totally shut down.

This is the state of the world today.

The world is in chaos.

It doesn't seem like a way out of this mess.

But there is a way.

Find the inner jewel inside of you.

This will lead you home.

It's as simple as that.

We spend most of our time in our minds.

There must be a mind, body, and soul connection.

You can solve this riddle.
